

This booklet contains a wealth of information about online resources and websites that you can use to help with revision and assessment preparation.

GCSE Pod and the Oak National Academy cover a range of subjects and can help to consolidate your knowledge and learning of particular topics.

There are also many exam papers and subject specific resources on Exam board websites and Satchel One.

At the back of this guide are some useful Revision Apps that you can download.

Revision App	Description	How to download
Keep App 	It's all about organisation: From reminders to checklists – this app has it covered. Image to Text is a great feature that allows you to grab text from photos. You can also take photos of your notes and off you go!	Available on Google Play and the App store
Quizlet 	A study and flashcard app, Quizlet lets you create quizzes with your own information. There are also 400million quizzes already available across a wide range or subject areas.	Available on Google Play and the App store
Padlet 	The easiest and quickest way to collaborate. Students can create a shared space where everyone can share ideas, links, images and tips. The link can be shared with everyone in a class, allowing everyone to add in their information, save as a pdf and send to everyone!	Available on Google Play and the App store
Adapt Revision App 	Adapt is a study planner like nothing you've ever seen before. It makes your perfect plan in less than a minute, and automatically keeps track of your revision for you- so you always feel in control	Available on Google Play and the App Store
Flipd 	Need a break from your phone or social media? Looking for an app that will lock you out of your phone so that you can study in peace? You've come to the right place. Log all of your revision, focus, reading, learning, work time and more, analyse your progress, and join communities for free!	Available on Google Play and the App store
iMindMap	Many students find visual learning a helpful revision tactic. Visual study techniques like mind-mapping can really help dyslexic students, for example. The iMindMap lets you connect ideas in an easy, visual way with mindmaps. It helps condense huge essays into little bite-sized chunks.	Available on Google Play and the App store
